Dear Wholesale Produce Buyer:

This second edition of The Green Book should help meet your needs in obtaining a reliable and nearby source of fresh quality produce. It will also help local growers maintain a steady market.

We hope you will encourage your customers to "Savor the Seasons of the Bay State," as there is something to enjoy year round from Massachusetts farms and greenhouses.

The Green Book, a directory of Bay State farmers who sell their products wholesale, has been updated with new listings and changes have been made to the format for easier access to information. Growers are listed by product and grouped by county. Also provided is an alphabetical listing of all farms with full addresses and phone numbers, as well as a buying guide indicating when products are in season.

I would like to thank the growers who provided us with new and revised information for the data base from which The Green Book is drawn. The data base is continually updated, so any farmers who are not currently listed in the directory are invited call the Bureau of Markets at (617) 727-3018, so that they may be included in the third edition of The Green Book.

Agriculture in Massachusetts will remain more viable with your support, and consumers will also benefit from the availability of high quality produce that is truly "Massachusetts grown...and fresher!".

Sincerely,

Commissioner

The second edition of The Green Book was produced by the above Bureau of Markets staff with the assistance of office staff members Deena Moran and Robin Rice, as well as the many farmers who provided updated information on their operations.

This publication lists Massachusetts producers of agricultural products that wholesale to retailers. These businesses responded to a mailed questionnaire and telephone inquiries; therefore, not all Massachusetts growers are listed. Every effort has been made to maintain accuracy and completeness. If any inaccuracies or omissions are found, please notify us.
